

CECILIA HORN

Cecilia Denise Horn, originally from Chicago, IL, is a dedicated professional and community advocate. She graduated from Langston University in Langston, OK, with a degree in Accounting. However, she learned early on that her true passion was helping people, which led her to pursue a career in fields that directly support and uplift others.

Cecilia is a proud mother to her son, Zion Horn, who is currently entering his junior year at Morehouse College. Her commitment to her family and community is evident in all aspects of her life.

Cecilia serves as the Quality Assurance and Marketing Administrator at the Angel of God Resource Center, a non-profit organization dedicated to making a positive impact in the community. In this role, she ensures the highest standards of quality and effectiveness in the organization's programs and outreach efforts.

In addition to her work at the non-profit, Cecilia runs her own consulting business, where she assists companies with their Human Resources needs. Her entrepreneurial spirit and expertise help businesses thrive by optimizing their HR practices and fostering a productive work environment.

Cecilia loves volunteering and being of service, always eager to help people. Her dedication to community service is a testament to her commitment to making a difference in the lives of others.

Cecilia is deeply committed to helping others bring their visions to life and witnessing the positive outcomes of her efforts. Her work is driven by a genuine desire to give back to her community and make a lasting difference.

Cecilia is pumped and excited to serve as the Morehouse College Parent Council Alternate Regional V Representative. She will provide her passion for uplifting the community and supporting Morehouse young men in getting the resources they need while focusing on their primary goal: education.
